

Please do NOT lessen the Law on telemarketers being able to call those of us who do not wish to be called. I am not a well woman and I work a full time job and have a teenage son. When I get to relax I really need that time to myself, not to be bothered answering a phone call that I don't want to listen to. These past month's without those calls have been wonderful.

Thank you,

Debra